Life's full of complications and setbacks - that's just unavoidable. What you can do about that is make sure you're carrying a do-it-all multi tool to get you out of life's little scrapes and struggles. Don't be fooled by its size - the Crucial Multi-Tool isn't the biggest tool on the market, but it's got the functions and strength of a larger tool.

The longer handle means you'll have better grip and control over your tool so you'll have less mishaps with this tool in your kit. The Crucial will come through when you need it most - you'll be able to cut wire, open bottles, loosen screws and tinker away to your heart's content.

Don't weight down your pocket with a bulky weighty multi-tool - get yourself something compact, functional, an easy to use like the crucial from Gerber.
