Details

If you're heading out on your next camping trip with a gaggle of rowdy kids (and grownups) you might want to consider a space-saving sleeping option like the Deluxe Double Bunk Bed from OZtrail. This little beauty is a portable bunk bed that can also be split into two single stretchers.

This bunk was designed not to tip over as OZtrail have put leg and anti-roll corner supports to keep everything nice and sturdy when in use. You won't be woken up by any midnight squabbles over stepped-on feet as the top bunk has a safety rail which makes using the bunk both easier and safer.

There's also side organiser with space for a phone, tablet, or any other form of entertainment - so once everyone is settled in, there's no need to get back up again. Whether you're a couple of grownups determined to relive your childhood, or you're in need of a space saving sleeping arrangement - the Deluxe Double Bunk Bed is a great group camping option.
