Details

With a simple, yet personable design, the 360 Degrees Stainless Steel Drink Bottle is the perfect non-toxic addition to any lunchbox, work desk or backpack.

This is a great alternative to plastic and resin coated aluminium, and with no lining, you won't have to deal with any unpleasant taste or odour. The stainless steel interior surface is electropolished which resists bacteria and makes it easy to keep clean.

The design comes in a range of colours - from sleek silver to sunny yellow, which means there's something for everyone. There's also a wide mouth for easy sipping, plus plenty of room to fit in a few ice cubes on a hot day. The 1L size is perfect for a long journey, or for all-day hydration at your desk.
