Details

While silk is a luxurious and comfortable fabric, it's not known for its stretchiness so it's not usually ideal for restless sleepers...but wait, hold your horses! The Silk Liner from Sea to Summit features polyester and Lycra stretch panels along the seams, so you can thrash away to your heart's content, with plenty of room to spare.

Made using premium AA grade silk, this lightweight and compact liner has a luxurious feel that is ideal for keeping your sleeping bag clean, improving the thermal performance of your sleeping bag, or for adding a buffer between you and those dodgy hostel sheets. It's also Extra wide so it's perfect in larger sleeping bags or even in a bed.

This liner is double folded, machine washable and features reinforced seams for long-term durability. For a high-performance liner that'll keep your sleeping bag clean, and you comfortable while you doze - the Silk Stretch Double Liner from Sea to Summit is the answer.
