Details

This summer, get rid of those old dodgy looking thongs and pick yourself up a pair of slip-ons that will actually give your feet the comfort and support you'll need for all-day wear.

These water-resistant and quick-drying slides are going to be your new best friend when the hot weather hits, as you'll be able to wear them to the beach, and all day in the heat. The footbed is moulded anatomically, so you'll have plenty of support for hours of wear without any strain to your feet.

The sole is made from non-marking rubber, with a lug design that will provide you with enough grip to walk on wet surfaces. Best of all, they're lightweight so you won't be weighed down even after being on your feet all day.
