Dromedary 10L Water Storage

$104.90

Details

Built tough to last, the MSR Dromedary bag will haul your water on all your outdoor trips, while holding up in all kinds of conditions.

Made from a whopping 1000 denier fabric laminated with food-grade polyurethane, this bag will stand up to freezing and boiling temperatures. Extremely transportable thanks to its entirely collapsible construction, and with webbing on the outside edges to make carrying and hanging super easy - this bag won't let you down when it comes to convenience and ease of use.

The low-profile cap also makes it easy to fill your bag, drink from it, and pour water with no trouble. Add to the versatility of this bag with the compatible accessories, and you can turn this bladder into a hydration kit or shower when you're off the grid. When it comes to choosing gear that performs at a high-level season after season, you can rely on MSR.
