Details

Got a frosty, icy adventure planned? Then you've got to house your feet with the proper gear to keep them dry, and more importantly warm when it's snowing - which is where the Caribou boot from Sorel Footwear come in.

This completely waterproof boot is constructed from nubuck leather and is seam sealed to prevent leaks and protect your feet from the cold. The Caribou comes with a felt inner boot that provides warmth and comfort and is also removable.

The handcrafted vulcanised rubber shell and non-loading outside provide you with the grip and protection to tackle the slopes with ease. Built to be used in conditions up to -40° Celsius, you can rely on the Caribou when faced with freezing cold weather. This snowy season, keep your dry and warm in a pair of the Caribou snow boot from Sorel.
