

GSI Outdoors Halulite 1.1L Boiler

~~$67.50~~ $59.90

Details

If you prefer a streamlined cooking setup then the Halulite 1.1L Boiler from GSI Outdoors is perfect for fast and light expeditions.

Made from hard anodised aluminium for strength and efficiency, this boiler can also fit a 110g or 220g isobutane fuel canister in it for easy storage.

This boiler features a handle that locks into place while you're cooking, that can then be folded back down over the top to lock it into place while you're travelling. It also has the liquid measurements on the interior, so you can be precise with how much water you're boiling.

Ideal for rehydrating pouch meals and making hot drinks - pair the Halulite 1.1L Boiler with your compact stove of choice, for a simple cooking solution on the trail.
