Details

If you're after a swag that stands out from the crowd, has a quality build, offers great weather protection and an affordable price tag, then the Mitchell Discovery King Single Swag in Purple should be right up your street.

Constructed from tough 330gsm ripstop canvas to keep off the weather, and with a 520gsm PVC vinyl bucket floor to protect you from wet terrain- the Mitchell is built for harsh Australian conditions. The three Durallium 7001 Alloy poles provide stability and headroom, while the 5cm high-density open-cell foam mattress gives you a solid base to sleep on.

Getting in and out of your swag is easy, thanks to the large full top opening. In chilly weather, ventilate through the head and foot awnings, and when the weather is warmer you can unzip it and still keep out insects thanks to the No-See-Um mesh. You can also keep your phone or headtorch close by in the two inner storage pockets.

If you like to keep your bedding compact on your camping adventures, or you're a tourer looking for a quick pitch option then the Mitchell Discovery from OZtrail is just what you need.
