Details

If your leather hiking boots or shoes are starting to absorb water instead of repelling it, then you can fix that in a jiffy with the Waterproofing Wax for Leather from Nikwax.

If the original waterproofing treatment has worn off, then the leather is going to be less breathable and supportive which is why you need to maintain it. This waterproofing wax is designed to be used on smooth leather and has a sponge applicator making it easy to apply.

It also doesn't have any solvents, volatile organic compounds, or fluorocarbons and is non-flammable. Maintain your smooth leather footwear, with the Waterproofing Wax for Leather from Nikwax.
