~~$299.99~~ $224.90

Details

A performance bag that combines a down fill, with a lower weight and compact packed size - the Hiker 200 from Black Wolf will be your new companion on your lightweight journeys.

The Hiker 200 is filled with responsibly sourced 700+ loft water-repellent down and has been tested to the ISO23537:2016 international standard. It also has a comfort temperature rating of +8° and a lower limit temperature of +3°. This bag has a contoured hood for warmth and it's easy to adjust the hood with just one hand.

There's a chest pocket for your phone or headtorch, the draft flap stops warmth from escaping, the glow in the dark zippers pulls are easy to locate, and the hanging loop makes airing it out after use simple. Stuff it into its included lightweight compression stuff sack on your adventure, and when you're home put it in the mesh storage sack to protect the down.

Sleep comfortably on lighter adventures, with the Hiker 200 Sleeping Bag from Black Wolf.
