Details

Whether you're going for a morning stroll, trying to sort our errands on the weekend, or sightseeing on holiday - the Arrowood Riva WP Shoe from Teva will have you covered.

These shoes have a waterproof full-grain leather upper to protect your feet, and a rubberised cap to shield your toes from obstructions from the trail. The PU sockliner/footbed and EVA foam midsole provides cushioning underfoot, and the nylon shank will stabilise and support your weight on uneven ground.

The Arrowood Riva also has a premium waterproof membrane that keeps your feet dry while allowing for your feet to breathe, and a Vibram outsole which will hold up to use over rugged surfaces. Slip on a pair of Arrowood Riva Shoes from Teva, for comfort and water protection while you go about your activity of choice.
