Details

If you don't like to be weight down the trail, then the lightweight and athletic fit Speed Lite 22 SL pack from Deuter will be the ultimate gear carrier for you.

The Speed Lite range is the lightest in the Deuter hiking pack range. This design also has a slimline fit, so it has a shorter back length that caters to those with a slender frame. The Lite Air back system features a Delrin U frame which has minimal weight with plenty of flexibility, it also has a compact and ventilated back panel for air flow, and close-fitting hip fins that are easy to adjust with pull forward straps.

The sternum strap adds stability, you can store your phone and wallet in the valuables pocket for safekeeping, the stretch side pockets are ideal for your essential items, the compression straps make it easy to carry extra gear, the laundry compartment is perfect for stashing wet layers, and this pack is also hydration compatible.

The light, functional and slim fitting Speed Lite 22 SL from Deuter is perfect for the hiking purist.
