

Sea to Summit Alpha Set 2.0

$99.90

Details

With the Alpha Set 2.0 from Sea to Summit, you can cook a main meal and a side at the campsite or on the trail.

This system features a 1.2L and 2.7L Alpha pot. Each one is made from high spec hard anodised premium alloy, which a material that is thin, light yet very durable. The base of the pots has been sandblasted which gives it extra grip on top of a stove, so you're less likely to have any spills or mishaps when you stir. The handle locks into place securely while cooking, and when not in use, you can rotate it inwards to lock it. This is great if you want to nest your other cooking gear inside for storage in your pack.

If you're cooking pasta or washing some veggies, the strainer on the lid makes it easy to get it right without spilling your food. And, if you like to have your hands free the Lid Keep feature allows you to hook the lid onto the rim of the pot. Use the Alpha Pot 2.0 whenever you need lightweight yet rugged cookware that delivers on performance.
