Details

It may not be the coolest hat around, but the Legionnaire's hat from Jack Jumper will provide your face and neck with maximum protection on a warm day.

This versatile design is made from UPF 40+ nylon and can be adjusted to fit with the drawcord at the back. The rear neck veil shields your neck while the mesh side panels allow for more ventilation which reduces perspiration. This hat also has a crescent-shaped brim which helps protect your faces and eyes from the glare of the sun.

For all-around protection when you're outside, throw on the Legionnaire's Hat from Jack Jumper.
