Details

If the clouds are looking grey but you don't want to skip your outing, add a Raincover I from Deuter to your pack to protect your gear from the elements.

This lightweight rain cover is made from 70 denier fabric, that has a PU coating for excellent water protection. It's also has taped seams to prevent any leaks through the stitching for your peace of mind. And in an emergency or when you're travelling on the road, the bright colour will provide more visibility.

For those times when you can't control the weather, grab a Raincover I from Deuter to whip out when a shower is on the cards.

Suitable for 20-35L packs
Light and compact
PU coating for water protection
