Details

The Sky Master 70 II will help you carry, drag and haul your gear on your next domestic or overseas adventure. The Sky Master 70 II is constructed from strong high tensile polyester and has a large main divided compartment with multiple internal zip compartments. There are internal and external compression straps which help with securing your gear, and this pack has a concealable padded harness which can also be zipped away in transit. The zips on the Sky Master can also be locked, which will give you peace of mind while it's out of sight. And if you need to drag your bag behind you, the all-terrain wheels and aluminium handle will make that a piece of cake. With this pack, you won't need an extra bag to take sightseeing or as carry on as it comes with a detachable daypack which zips onto the main pack. Whether you're catching a bus, train or plane, the Sky Master 70 II from Caribee is a solid and versatile choice. Zip-off daypack Padded zip-away harness Extendable aluminium handle Durable all-terrain wheels Numerous internal and external organiser pockets Hip belt wheel protectors Lockable zips Internal and external compression straps
