Details

The palm-sized Rebel from Nebo Lighting is a task light and rechargeable headlamp in one - so it's perfect for the multi-tasking outdoors person. The base of the Rebel is magnetic, and it has a rotating removable steel clip so using it hands-free is an absolute breeze. Constructed from high quality anodised aircraft grade aluminium for strength without the weight, this light is also water and impact resistant for your peace of mind. With four modes available - low, high, turbo and strobe, you'll be covered for all kinds of lighting applications. This unit provides a huge 600 lumens on maximum, making it pretty powerful for its size. It comes with a rechargeable battery which is super easy to charge up via the included magnetic USB to Micro USB cable. And in terms of comfort, the head strap is adjustable so one size will fit all. Keep the Rebel from Nebo Lighting on hand for illumination at home, out on the road, or in the field.
