Details

The combination of a soft cotton flannel lining, tough canvas exterior and roomy interior makes the Cold Mountain Canvas 900 Sleeping Bag from Darche ideal for sleeping soundly on your rugged Aussie adventures.

The dual layer filling provides warmth, and you'll feel more like you're in your bed at home as the lining is made from soft cotton flannel. With dual zips, you can easily join compatible bags together, and if you don't like sleeping confined, just unzip the 900 to create a comfy doona. If you prefer to keep your phone or other valuables close by, the interior pocket in this sleeping bag means you can keep it on standby in case you need it. You can also cinch in the drawcord hood to keep your noggin nice and toasty when out in the field. When it's time to pack up and head home, this bag can be rolled up like a swag and put into its included zippered carry bag, for no-fuss pack up.
