Details

Is this the best thing since sliced bread? The Furno Stove with Igniter from 360 Degrees took their beloved affordable, efficient and compact Furno Stove and improved it with the addition of a piezo ignition. This unit is made from stainless steel and aluminium alloy and can boil a litre of water in just 3 and a half minutes. It has three arms to support your pot, an adjustable heat output, and of course, a piezo ignition so you don't need to bring a lighter with you or stress about keeping your matches dry. The Furno Stove with Igniter is the ideal companion for a lightweight trip for making a hot drink, or to reheat a pouch meal after a long day of exploring on the trail. Stainless steel and aluminium alloy 3 stabilising arms for pot support Adjustable heat output Piezo ignition 11,900 BTU/hr Boils 1L in 3 min 20 sec
