Details

Cooking up the catch of the day, or a tasty soup when you're on the road is simple, with a Pop up Stock Pot.

This pot features collapsible food grade silicone side walls that shrink it down to around a third of its size for storage. It also has a 304 stainless steel base which allows you to quickly and evenly heat up the contents on any low heat source.

The stainless steel and silicone lid allows steam to escape, and the handles make it easy to use. Best of all, this pot is easy to clean as the silicone sides are naturally non-stick. Keep the Pop Up Stock Pot in your home, caravan or camp kitchen for a compact cooking solution where storage space is a problem.

Food grade silicone walls, handles and lid
