Details

Protect yourself from the sun this summer with the Bondi Sunshelter from Explore Planet Earth. The quick up frame features fibreglass poles and assembles in an instant, so it'll be ready for the beach in no time. This shelter has a UPF50+ protection factor to shield you from UV rays, a built-in floor for comfort, and windows for extra ventilation. If a coastal breeze comes along, fill up the sand pockets for extra stability and secure it down with the included pegs. When your day of fun is over, and it's time to hit the road - just pop it back into the convenient carry bag for transport and storage. On a warm sunny day, set up a Bondi Sunshelter from Explore Planet Earth for protection at the park, beach or in your backyard.
