Details

Instead of duct taping gear that breaks and hoping for the best - keep an extra strong versatile Voile Strap on hand to get you through your trip without a fuss.

This design has stood the test of time over the past three decades, as it works in extreme weather, and can be daisy-chained together to get the ideal length. It's from hardwearing stretch polyurethane which also has a UV resistant additive to increase the lifespan, and comes in a range of high-vis colours. It also features a tough heat-treated aluminium buckle which has a slim profile to make it easy to pack.

The applications of this strap are pretty much limitless, so keeps a couple of the Voile Straps in your pack or repair kit for emergencies.
