

Gasmate Travelmate II Portable Stove

~~$59.95~~ $29.90

Details

Being Australian Gas Association Approved, the Gasmate Travelmate II Butane Canister, or sometimes known as the Lunchbox Stove is not only a safe way of cooking on your adventures, it's also extremely efficient and convenient.

Powered by disposable bayonet butane cartridges, the Travelmate II stove now comes with a fixed pot support that makes set-up even quicker. Lighting the stove is easy with the integrated rotary piezo, and twin over-pressure safety features ensure there are no dangerous flare-ups or explosions.

Constructed with a high-temperature powder coated steel and a vitreous enamel drip tray for durability and easy cleaning on the outside, and high-quality brass fittings on the inside, the Gasmate Travelmate II stove is the perfect cooker for a road trip, alfresco cooking or for a compact camp set-up.
