Details

The moisture-wicking, durable and padded - Bridgedale Trailsport Lightweight Ankle Socks will keep your feet cool and comfy as you zip around the trail. These socks are made from a merino wool fusion blend which wick moisture, keep odours at bay and have enough stretch to retain their shape after they've been washed. Designed to fit your feet securely, the Trailsport Light won't slip down or bunch up when you're wearing them. They also have an elasticated arch, 3D shaped heel cup to keep them in place, and a flat toe seam to prevent irritation. For your fast-paced expeditions, the Bridgedale Trailsport Socks are just what your feet need. Padded for comfort Flat toe seam to prevent irritation Moisture-wicking and odour control Won't slip down or bunch Elasticated arch and 3D shaped heel cup to keep sock secure Returns to original shape after washing Made from: 28% Merino wool, 42% Nylon/Polyamide, 28% Endurofil®/Polypropylene, 2% LYCRA®/Elastane
