Details

For a great balance of weight, comfort and insulation - you can count on the Comfort Light Insulated Women's Mat from Sea to Summit. Shaped to be wider at the hip and narrower at the shoulder for a women's specific fit, this mat offers 6.3cm of comfort. It's got an R-value of 4.7 thanks to the Exkin Platinum® technology which reflects heat, and the thicker THERMOLITE® insulation to keep you warm and comfy as you sleep. The 30/40D nylon fabric is lightweight, quiet and packable while also being easy to repair in the field with the included self-adhesive patches. To prevent mould growth, this mat has an Ultra-Fresh® anti-microbial treatment to the TPU. The Air Sprung Cells™ conform to your body to evenly disperse the pressure, and to make inflation, deflation and adjustment easy, it's got a multi-function high flow rate valve. The Comfort Light Insulated Women's Mat from Sea to Summit is packable, warm and adventure-ready sleeping companion.
