Details

If warmth and comfort is a priority on your adventure, the Comfort Plus SI Women's Mat from Sea to Summit provides a soundless snooze when the temperatures drop. This mat is 8cm thick, with an R-value of 5.2 so it'll insulate you and keep you cushioned when sleeping on colder surfaces. The PU foam inside this mat has been cored with a women's specific Delta Core™ profile to remove weight and bulk while providing comfort and warmth. It's shaped to be narrower at the shoulder and wider at the hip and has a multi-functional high flow rate valve for easy inflation and deflation. The top of this mat has a soft and quiet 30D stretch knit fabric for comfort, while the base is a durable 30D polyester with extrusion laminated TPU with an anti-slip print for sleeping on sloped surfaces. In chilly conditions, the Comfort Plus SI Women's Mat from Sea to Summit will deliver on a good night's sleep. Women's specific Delta Core™ profile for warmer core body zones Wider at the hip and narrower at the shoulder Multi-functional high flow rate valve for easy inflation and deflation Soft and quiet 30D stretch knit fabric on top Lightweight 30D polyester with extrusion laminated TPU base Anti-slip print on the base PillowLock™ keeps a separate Aeros pillow in place
