Details

From lightweight trekking to overseas expeditions, the lightweight and compact Aeros Ultralight Regular Pillow is what your sleeping set up needs. Made with a light and compact 20D laminated polyester, the Aeros Pillow has curved internal baffles that form contours to cradle your head. The scalloped bottom edge accommodates your shoulders making it as comfortable when sleeping on your side as it is on your back, or upright in a chair. You can secure it to any separate Sea to Summit mat as it features the Pillow Lock system. A multi-function valve makes inflation and deflation easy so that you can pack down into the included stuff sack that fits into the palm of your hand. For fast and light adventures, rest your head on the Aeros Ultralight Pillow from Sea to Summit. 20D laminated polyester Abrasion resistant high strength TPU Durable welded RF construction Curved internal baffles cradle head Multi-function inflate/deflate valve Pillow Lock system Scalloped bottom edge centres pillow over your shoulders
