Details

Cruise through your backpacking adventure while carrying everything you need with the Aircontact ACT 45+10 from Deuter. This pack has a new refined modern design, with the same durable construction we've come to expect from Deuter. The Aircontact back system will adapt to your back, has additional load adjustment straps, a padded hip belt for comfort, the VariQuick system to adjust it to any back length and a stable X-frame to transfer the weight onto your hips. In terms of storage, there's a zipped front opening for easy access, a bottom compartment with a removable separator, pockets on the outside for smaller items, an adjustable lid for extra space, a pocket for valuables, and a compartment for wet gear. There's an attachment you're your hiking poles and a separate hydration system to drink on the go, and a removable rain cover in case you encounter a drizzle. On your next trekking or travel expedition, you can rely on the Aircontact ACT 45+10 from Deuter to cart around your gear.
