Details

When a low-key expedition is on the cards, the budget-friendly Buckley Hoodie is the simple choice when you're heading away for the weekend. The Buckley bag is rated to 0°degrees, and has been specially designed for family camping trips. It features a synthetic Maxotherm filling which is coated with silicon coated to help prevent the fibres from clumping together, which helps the fill to be as thermally efficient as possible. This bag also has a hood which will help to trap warmth around your head, to keep you nice and snug while you drift off to sleep. The Buckley 0° Sleeping Bag will keep you comfy while you snooze at the campsite. 0°degree ratingMaxotherm silicon coated fill for comfort and thermal efficiencyHood keeps your head warm190T polyester shellIdeal for family trips
