

Black Diamond Trail Pro Shock Trekking Poles

$189.95

Details

Straight from the top shelf, the Black Diamond Trail Pro Shock Trekking Pole is the lightweight and impact absorbing poles that provide support on the trail. These revamped poles are designed to be used in four season conditions and feature Black Diamond's Control Shock Technology to absorb impact even on rugged terrain. The SmashLock quick release mechanism deploys and locks them securely, while the FlickLock Pro system has been updated for easier adjustment. In terms of comfort, the soft foam grip has been updated to be smoother and the solution strap provides better security. You'll also have plenty of grip as these poles come with interchangeable carbide tech tips, and the ferrule is ski compatible so it accepts 100mm powder baskets for deep snow. Make it easier to hike up and down hills with the versatile Trail Pro Shock Trekking Poles from Black Diamond. Four season versatility Solution strap for added security Built-in shock absorbing technology Redesigned FlickLock Pro adjustability is easier to use SmashLock technology deploys and locks into place quickly Updated dual-density grip is softer and more comfortable Interchangeable carbide tech tips for a secure bite on all kinds of terrain Ski compatible ferrule will accept 100mm powder baskets for deep snow
