

Able Brewing AeroPress Travel Cap

~~$15.00~~ $14.50

Details

Make transporting your beloved Aeropress coffee maker more efficient and convenient with the Travel Cap from Able. When attached to the end of your separately available Aeropress, it seals off the end which allows you to store beans or filters in it. Constructed from lightweight food safe elastomer, it has small ridges along it to make it easier to grip when you're pressing down on the plunger, and it provides a non-slip surface for making coffee by the inverted method. Utilise the space in your Aeropress while also making it easier to grip with the Travel Cap from Able. Made of food-safe elastomer. Seals off the unused opening so you can store beans or filters. Creates better grip when you plunge at the end of the brewing. Non-slip surface for brewing via the inverted method.
