Details

At the size of a large mug, with a nesting design and a minuscule weight - the Trail Mini Solo Cook Set from MSR is a great fast and light option for one. This set comes with a 0.75L hard-anodised aluminium pot, BPA free bowl, a clear lid with straining ports, and an ultralight mini pot lifter - which all nest together to fit into the included stuff sack. The lid and bowl are made from polypropylene which is BPA free and hot and cold safe, while the hard-anodised aluminium pot provides lightweight durability. Designed to be the perfect volume to make enough hot water for a substantial cup of coffee or a pouch meal, the pot also has an insulated grip so you can drink from it directly. Incredibly compact and minimalistic - the Trail Mini Solo Cook Set from MSR is perfect for the lone adventurer. Packed nesting design is the size of a large mug. Hard anodised aluminium boils water for a large cup of coffee or one pouch meal. Fits separately available PocketRocket 2 Stove and a 113g MSR fuel canister inside. Lid and bowl made from BPA free hot and cold safe polypropylene. Insulated pot grip so it can be used for eating and drinking. Includes: 0.75L hard-anodised aluminium pot, BPA free bowl, clear lid with straining ports, ultralight mini pot lifter, and stuff sack.
