Details

A beanie is a strong defence against those frosty cold winter days and nights, which is why the Tenzing from Sherpa is a must when the days get shorter. This beanie has an acrylic outer for durability, with lightweight 3M Thinsulate insulation to keep your head nice and warm. This insulation traps body heat while allowing moisture to escape so that it doesn't get too sweaty. The turn back cuff adds extra comfort around your ears, while the inner fleece lining feels super soft against your skin. Your head will be snug, warm and protected from the elements with the Tenzing Beanie from Sherpa. 100% acrylic outer for superior durability 3M Thinsulate insulation technology traps body heat Soft touch inner fleece lining Unisex adult size - one size fits all Turn back cuff
