Details

When you're hitting the trails the last thing you want is your feet to feeling weighed down and hot. Say hello to the Hike Ultra Light T2 Coolmax Performance sock from Bridgedale. The clever people at Bridgedale have developed a sock perfect for hiking in the warm weather. Made using Coolmax, nylon and Lycra this dynamo will wick moisture away to keep your feet cool and dry. The T2 padding will make you feel like you are running on a cloud and the large areas of open mesh assist with ventilation. The Performance fit Lycra technology give a close supportive fit from foot to calf, so no saggy baggy socks. Keep dry, cool and comfy on the trail with the Hike Ultra Light T2 Coolmax Performance sock from Bridgedale. Lightweight and cushioned. Minimum insulation, maximum ventilation. Sculpted open mesh keeps moisture away. Won't slip down or bunch. Made from: 56% Nylon / Polyamide, 42% Coolmax / Polyester, 2% LYCRA®/Elastane
