Details

The spacious AViANT Duffel 70 from Deuter provides ample space for your gear for sports, gym or adventures away from home. This duffel is made from 600D polyester with a thick PU coating making it nice and robust. Access your stuff from the large opening on the main compartment and for security just add locks to the sliders. It's easy to sling it over one shoulder, or you can adjust the straps to carry this duffel as a backpack. There's also a large zipped side pocket to keep your more accessible items, an external pocket on the outside which can be zipped up, as well as padded grab handles. The versatile Deuter AViANT Duffel 70 makes it simple and convenient for you to haul your stuff around for your various activities. 70L capacity Lightweight design Lockable sliders on main compartment Two padded grab handles Adjustable straps for use as backpack or shoulder bag One large zipped side pocket Large opening to main compartment External zipped valuables pocket
