$14.00

Details

This classic and hearty meal is a winner. Perfect in a wrap for dinner or a hot lunch or serve it with egg for a spicy breakfast, the Chilli Con Carne from Go Native is a versatile base for many camping meals.

A mouth-watering dish that isn't freeze-dried or dehydrated, instead, this meal is made the same way you would cook at home. It's then sealed airtight in a process called 'retort packaging' to keep the moisture, flavour and texture within whilst giving it an extended shelf life without refrigeration and making it ideal for camping and hiking.

The Go Native Chilli Con Carne is delicious cold or is easily reheated by simply dropping the whole sachet in a pot of boiling water for a couple of minutes, tear off the top and enjoy straight from the packet, or add some mashed potato for a complete dinner.

Not freeze-dried or dehydrated
Heats in 2 minutes
Does not require refrigeration
Ready to eat straight from the packet
