Details

Whether you're hiking or camping, you'll sleep soundly on the Hexatherm Hiker Hybrid Regular Mat from Black Wolf. The interior has an ergonomic horizontally cored foam inner support system to keep you comfortable and has a flat recessed multifunction valve to make it super easy to inflate. This mat has a 20D ripstop nylon upper with a TPU coating for durability, with a durable non-slip base so that it doesn't slide around on the floor of your tent if you toss and turn. This mat also comes with a repair kit included, so you can patch it up in the field. On a lightweight trail expedition or an extended stay at a campsite - the Hexatherm Hiker Hybrid Regular Mat from Black Wolf will provide you with a solid base to snooze on. ASTM F3340-18 R-Value: 3.0 Regular size 20D ripstop nylon upper with a TPU coating Horizontally cored foam inner support system Ergonomic and comfortable Non-slip base Multifunction valve for easy inflation
