Details

Make that next uphill climb a bit easier on your body with the Distance FLZ Women's Trekking Poles from Black Diamond. These poles are constructed from robust aluminium, with a three-section design that deploys quickly and collapses easier with Black Diamond's new SlideLock technology. Now upgraded to be 30% stiffer with better joint support, these poles are also simple to adjust with the FlickLock system. Long days on the trail won't leave your hands battered and calloused, as the Distance FLZ has soft to the touch contact points, a lightweight EVA foam grip and a moisture-wicking strap for security. The EVA foam mini grip extension is non-slip, you can change the tips from non-scarring rubber tech tips to carbide tech tips depending on the terrain, and there is a stopper basket with shaft catcher to secure the sections. Suitable for three season use, the compact and supportive Distance FLZ Women's trekking poles are the reliable adventure buddy you need. Compact three-section foldable design Non-slip EVA foam grip mini extension Durable aluminium construction Soft to the touch contact points helps prevent callouses Upgraded to be 30% stiffer with improved joint support New SlideLock technology makes locking and collapsing easier Interchangeable non-scarring rubber tech tips and carbide tech tips Stopper basket with shaft catcher to secure folded sections
