Details

With enough warmth for cooler evenings, and a light and compact design for packability - the Hydrogen Sleeping Bag from Marmot is ideal if space and weight are at a premium. The Hydrogen has a mummy shape to trap heat, with an anatomically designed footbox with wrap-around construction for warmth. To save on weight, this bag is made from an ultralight 20D nylon ripstop fabric and is filled with certified 800+ Fill Power Goose Down which has a Down Defender treatment to improve its water resistance in wet conditions. The smooth curved baffles reduce down migration and the multi-baffle hood with a drawcord keeps your head snug. EN tested for reliability, the Hydrogen has a comfort temperature rating of 0.9 °C. The fold-down second zipper provides ventilation and access, while the main zipper anti-snag slider reduces snagging. The Hydrogen Sleeping Bag from Marmot is the super-packable choice for your lightweight trips. Filled with certified 800+ Fill Power Goose Down
EN 13537 temperature tested Full length locking YKK two-way zipper with zip guard slider Smooth curved baffles reduce down movement Down defender improves water resistance in wet conditions Multi-baffle hood with drawcord Internal stash pocket Snagless insulated draft tube Two hang loops Stuff and storage sack included
