Details

For those extra thirsty days, or the times when you just need to carry more because a refill may not be available once you're out and about, the Carry Cap 1.9L Insulated Stainless Steel water bottle from Camelbak is the perfect answer. This bottle offers a whopping 1.9L capacity and double wall vacuum insulation to keep drinks hot or cold for hours. It's constructed of durable 18/8 stainless steel and a sweat-proof powder coated finish, so the outside of your bottle will stay dry regardless of what liquid you've got inside or the temperature outside. The spill-proof Carry Cap twists to open and is designed to make it easy for those on the move who need a quick grab-and-go solution. No worries on any nasty chemicals either with both the vessel and cap being manufactured free of BPA, BPS and BPF. An effortless hand wash on the bottle while the top rack inside your dishwasher takes care of your cap, fill with your chosen refreshment and you'll be good to go with the Carry Cap 1.9L Insulated Stainless Steel water bottle from Camelbak. Double-wall vacuum-insulated - cold up to 24 hours / hot up to 10 hours 18/8 Stainless steel with sweat-proof powder coat finish. No nasties - BPA, BPS, and BPF free. Spill-proof Carry Cap is compatible with Eddy®, Chute® Mag, and Hot Cap vessels. Easy to clean - hand wash stainless steel vessel, cap is top-rack dishwasher safe.
