

OZtrail
Giga Earth Mat
$29.90

Details

You know those blue foam sleeping mats you often see strapped to a hiking pack or in a lightweight camp kit, well this is a deluxe version of one of those.

The Giga Earth Mat from Oztrail can be used by itself as an ultralight sleeping pad, or add's an extra layer of insulation to your existing camp map on a cold night in your tent.

This mat is made from 20mm thick dual density closed cell foam, which not only makes it great for layering under another mat when camping, but it can also be used for gym, yoga, or sports.

Excellent insulation from cold ground or other surfaces
Made from closed cell foam
Great for camping and all sorts of outdoor activities
