

Exped
Downmat 9LW Sleeping Mat
$369.95

Details

The Exped Downmat 9 LW sleeping mat provides an amazing ratio of warmth to weight with down filled tubes offering superior warmth and comfort whilst maintaining a petite pack size that makes it ideal for cold winter adventures.

700 fill power goose down is contained within hydrolysis resistant TPU laminated polyester fabric chambers to create a lightweight mat with unsurpassed insulation and support. Inflation is easy with an integrated hand pump which also prevents the build-up of moisture inside the mat when inflated by mouth.

Exped is an innovative Swiss brand who stand by the quality of their products, which is why each Exped mat is individually tested for airtight integrity prior to shipment. All mats are designed to withstand 5 times the pressure attained during normal inflation, and they back their products with a 5-year warranty.
