

Sea to Summit Latitude Ltl Sleeping Bag (2°C)

Details

What if there was a sleeping bag that offered roomy reliable warmth in a small package that was just as functional on a summer holiday? Well look no further, the Sea to Summit Latitude Ltl is a tapered and efficient bag that offers extra room around the chest and feet, and a full-length zip so you can open it right out in mild conditions.

A differential cut construction combined with offset baffles and a tapered roomy foot section all at a sub 1kg weight. No warmth trapping features have been left out, draft tube, neck baffle, three-dimensional hood and draw-cords complete the Latitude as a fully featured bag.

They've even included an internal zippered accessory pocket! Once compressed the Latitude takes up a minuscule 5.5L of volume in your pack and comes with a laundry bag/storage cell for when your adventure is over. So, you don't need multiple bags, the Sea to Summit Latitude Ltl is a lightweight bag for all year use.
