Details

With the latest technology, the Coleman HyperFlame FyreCadet gas camping stove has revolutionized camp cooking with a new burner design and WindBlock pot support that opens up space for larger pots.

Perfect when you just need maximum output for boiling water or to cook on high heat, and easy to clean thanks to removable pan supports and the Coleman SwapTop system that enables a combination of cooking surfaces to be used on the stove at the same time.

A streamlined design with a secure lid latch, anti-skid feet and independently adjustable flame control with a total output of 22,000 BTU's, the FyreKnight is made to deliver a fast and hot cooking solution wherever you set up camp.
