Details

Delicately flavoured with the sweet juices of Prunus serotina, Clif Bloks Energy Chews in Black Cherry flavour offer block loads of get-up-and-go with a dose of caffeine bundled up in soft chewy cubes that carry easily in jerseys, packs and shorts.

One Shot Blok is equal to approximately half a Clif Energy Gel which means you can give yourself smaller doses of energy more often and don't need to stash half consumed packets of gel during your race.

6 cubes per packet, one pack of Clif Shot Bloks has enough carbohydrates to keep you powered up for 1-2 hours of intense activity.
