$26.90

Details

Your bushwalking and hiking adventures will be made more enjoyable in the future with an Trekking Pole from Elemental on hand for support.

Poles add safety and support regardless of whether you're on a serious mountain climb or a casual walk around the block. Your endurance will be increased with less effort and stress on your joints and lower back. They're made from Durallium, a high strength but lightweight seamless aluminium tube that is anodised and corrosion resistant. It features a hand grip made of comfortable ergonomic cork which reduces slippage due to perspiration and have an adjustable wrist loop for increased stability.

The pole features a telescopic "Expander" of 3 twist locks with a simple twist from 68cm to 135cm, and a spring loaded anti-shock system to absorb impact. They also have flex tips that provide maximum hold and stability on hard surfaces and interchangeable baskets allow for quick and easy changeovers to meet any terrain conditions.
